The Make-up Market is the first ever pop-up market in the UK showcasing UK and international make-up and cosmetic brands. Beauty enthusiasts and consumers will experience brands demonstrating new and current products with the opportunity to expand their knowledge about make-up and this flourishing industry.

The aim of the pop-up market is to entice consumers across all demographics to not only try new products and services, but to also trial different brands.

To further engage our beauty fanatics, brands will also be given the opportunity to conduct workshops, demonstrations and talks in regards to their products.
